Person Injured

Anthony Cortese, 620 So. 2nd St. City, age 10
Treated by: Dr. L. P. Chappelle, 758 W. 4th St., City.
Person Injured: pedestrian.
Weather: Fair Road surface: Dry.
Remarks:
I was riding at about 10 or 12 miles per hour and was watching the boy. Just as my front wheel was parallel the boy turned to cross the street and ran into the wheel. The tire skinned the side of the boy's foot. I took the boy to a doctor immediately. Dr. L. P. Chappelle found no bones broken or any serious injury.

Sergt Brown reports as follows:- At 1 AM was sent to 615 East 2nd St to investigate a girl being attacked by a man on East 2nd St

Miss Dora Goldstein of 615 East 2nd St informed me that while on her way home from the Railroad Station she was walking east on East 2nd Street in the vicinity of 419, a vacant lot, a young man about 5'8" or 9" tall, slim build, blonde hair, no hat or coat on, wearing a khaki shirt & trousers and high hunting shoes jumped out from behind a tree and grabbed her and tried to assault her.

Her Mother who was on her way to the Station to meet her came along and heard her scream, when she approached the scene this man let go of Miss Goldstein and ran west on East 2nd St toward Watchung ave. Both my car and car #3 patrolled that vicinity for about one hour but was unable to locate anyone answering the discription given to us.

Patrolman Callaway informed me that a young man by the name of Jonnie Benokoski who lives on No. Jackson ave about 227 No. Pfd N.J answers this discription. This boy was arrested about 18 months ago for attacking a girl at Terrill Road Bridge - We watched this boys home home on No. Jackson ave to see whither he would come home but did not see him
